ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE PEOPLE.

The Board of Education yesterday adopted the report of the committee in favor of requesting the Board of Apportionment to transfer $9,200 from an unexpended appropriation for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the law providing for free lectures for the working men and women of the city during the winter. The Committee on Evening Schools was instructed to report a plan for the lectures.

The suggestion of this free and instructive amusement for the working people originated with THE EVENING WORLD, and the law was enacted through its efforts. We are, therefore, gratified that the proposed lectures receive the approbation and support of President Simmons and all but two members of the Board of Education, whose objections and criticisms, while doubtless honest, were unsound. Commissioner Cox insisted that all the school money should be used for educating children, instead of diverting any portion of it for the instruction and improvement of grown people. But he was reminded that the same argument would stop the evening schools, which are attended by many adults.

We congratulate the working people of the city on the success of THE EVENING WORLD's efforts to provide for them a free and valuable amusement during the winter evenings.

DOUBLE-BARRELED BIGAMY.

Mr. JAMES E. SMITH, of this city, was called to the Fifty-seventh Street Police Court yesterday to answer a charge of bigamy in having married MARY MUELLER while, as is alleged, he had a former wife who was at the time and is still alive. JAMES does not deny the marriage. Indeed, he admits three marriages instead of two, and makes his admitted double-barreled bigamy the ground of his defense.

The plea is an ingenious one. JAMES insists that his reputed first wife, who was married to him by Father FLOOD at St. John's Church in 1882, is not his wife at all, for this, if for no other reason: When he married her, as he says, he already had a living wife to whom he had been wedded ever since 1862, and who died less than three months ago. Hence the marriage by Father FLOOD in 1882 was no legal marriage at all, and as the original, bona fide Mrs. SMITH of 1862 was defunct before JAMES married MARY MUELLER, a little over a month ago, he was at the latter period a widower and MARY is the genuine present Mrs. SMITH.

Exactly how JAMES calculates to get over the marriage of 1882 does not appear. However, he pretends not to remember that any such ceremony took place. At all events it will be a pity if JAMES manages to slip through the apparently open network of the law.

THE STRAW-BAIL EVIL.

It is well known that our courts are infested with a set of pestilent rascals known as "straw-bail" men. These persons are at all times ready to go on bail bonds for a fee. Some of them have in some manner a title to a little property, which, however, is always secure against recovery for forfeited bail, while others are absolutely men of "straw." Yet they are willing to risk prosecution for perjury for the sake of making a few dollars. The practice is a most abominable one and is a great detriment to justice.

Yesterday an old man over sixty-four years of age offered himself as bondsman for a dishonest collector, charged with robbing his employer of $1,500. As he was about to take the oath Recorder SMITH stopped him and elicited the fact that a mortgage on a house he claimed to own free from debt had been foreclosed and judgment filed against him. The Recorder saved him from punishment for perjury.

These professional bondsmen are known to the court officers, and in no instance ought their bail to be accepted by a judge.

How much the people of New York have benefited by the successful efforts of Gov. HENRY to force a reorganization of the New Aqueduct Board is illustrated by the fact that Brown, Howard & Co., the Republican branch of Aqueduct contractors, are said to have begun suit against the city for $1,400,000 "damages" and money retained. The leakages having stopped, the "stand and deliver" policy is resorted to.

Judge BANCLAY, of the Circuit Court at St. Louis, has refused naturalization papers to a Chinaman. The Judge holds that all applicants for naturalization must be "free white persons, except those of African nativity or descent," and that the right of citizenship cannot be conferred upon Indians of our own country nor upon "red or yellow or brown skinned people of other countries." Where does this leave Cubans?

It is simply scandalous that Congress should allow a day's needless delay in the matter of a pension to Gen. SHERIDAN's widow. Mrs. SHERIDAN is at present in receipt of less than $1,000 a year income. It is disgraceful to the nation that the hero's widow should be left a single hour in anxiety on the subject.

The Anti-Poverty Fair has got its license and now Madison Square is merry with music and dancing. That is proper. Anti-Poverty certainly has a right to enjoy itself.

WORLDLINGS.

The richest and most influential Chinaman in Chicago is Hip Lung, the Mayor of the Celestial colony there and the laundry king of the city. He is a little man physically. His fortune amounts to $300,000.

William R. Merriam, the Republican candidate Governor of Minnesota, is thirty-eight years old. He is President of the First National Bank of St. Paul, which he entered as a clerk a few years ago. He was a student at Radcliffe College, and while there led his class in everything.

Senator Vance is very fond of his country home, "Gambroomb," a charming retreat in the mountains of Western North Carolina. He lives the life of a country gentleman there every summer, and takes great pride in his poultry yard, his orchard and his vineyard of choice grapes.

The costliest house in Washington is the Worden mansion, the millionaire owner of which has made a large fortune in a Washington real estate. It is of white stone and looks like a Venetian palace, with a handsome tower and a spacious courtyard. It is finely furnished and the walls are hung with beautiful pictures.

Mrs. James K. Polk, widow of the President, is now in her eighty-seventh year. She is cheerful but feeble, and is quietly and patiently waiting for the end to come. She lives a life of comparative seclusion in the old Polk mansion near Nashville. Her intellect is still bright, but her memory is poor.

M. Giguere and Mr. Gardner.

In your issue of Aug. 29 an article appeared relative to M. Edward Giguere, the French warbler, leaving Mr. E. M. Gardner's "Zo Zo" company and taking with him a wig and $300 belonging to Mr. Gardner, and also stated that M. Giguere was under contract to go with the "Zo Zo" company this season. Now in April, 1888, I contracted with M. Giguere for five years' management, and it was by my written consent that M. Giguere joined Mr. Gardner's company in 1886 for the season of 1886-87. Negotiations were pending with Mr. Gardner and Thatcher, Primrose & West as to who should have Giguere during the season of 1887-88. As there was a contract between Messrs. Gardner and Giguere containing the regular two weeks' notice clause, M. Giguere gave and Mr. Gardner took the notice given in writing which broke the existing contract.

As M. Giguere is at Jacob's Thalia Theatre this week with the "Kindergarten" company Mr. Gardner can make any demands on the next United States Senator. There is no question whether he institutes suit against Mr. Gardner for slander or not, and it is not for the undesirable notoriety he would acquire thereby he would certainly do so under my advice. In justice to M. Giguere by giving publication to the above you will oblige yours truly, M. J. JACOBS.

A Straw.

The evening sale of my papers seems to be increasing, so please send me forty to-morrow night and hereafter until further notice, and oblige, Mrs. W. H. MARTIN, Sept. 18.

POLITICS IN NEW JERSEY.

HUDSON COUNTY'S PORTION IS BOILING MERRILY IN THE POT.

With Ten Assembliesmen to Choose, the County May Elect a United States Senatorial Election—Democratic Gains Foreseen—High License or Local Option a Question to Be Met Also.

The men of Jersey City, Hoboken and the suburban sections of Hudson County who love politics are just beginning to realize that there is such a thing as a fall campaign under way. The result of their waking to the political pot on the other side of the river is beginning to boil and the men who want to fill various offices are up and doing. One Congressman and ten Assemblymen are to be elected in Hudson County.

In the Congressional matter there is little or no excitement. Mr. McAdoo will be returned. His only opponent in the convention which is to be held in Hoboken next Saturday will be ex-Assemblyman Edward F. McDonald, of Harrison, who will be far in the rear when the delegates' votes are counted. As yet the Republican party cradles no aspirant for its nomination. It is actually a drug on the market. Col. O. W. Fuller, State Superintendent of Schools, is the only available nominee. The honor is an empty one, as the Republicans concede a majority of over 8,000 for McAdoo.

The contests in the Assembly districts are warlike. There are two great issues involved in the election of the United States Senator John R. McPherson's successor and the question of high license or no high license. If the Legislature is Democratic Senator McPherson will be returned, or ex-Gov. Abbott will be his successor. Abbott's fight of 1886 will be remembered. It was without a William Walter Phelps, ex-Congressman George A. Halsey, of Newark, and Gen. William Joyce Sewall are the Republicans who covet the Senatorial seat.

The high-license issue is almost as weighty as the other. It has been the boast of the liquor dealers that the High-License law would be repealed by a Democratic Legislature this winter. The Republicans, on the other hand, declare that if they feel the influence of the liquor men against them they will circulate petitions for a local option election this year by three or possibly two. The Democrats will regain the First and Sixth districts and possibly the Ninth.

In the First district, Assemblyman Gallatin wants a re-nomination from the Republicans. Ex-Judge R. B. Seymour wants it, too, but won't get it. President O'Neill, of the Board of Aldermen, will be the Democratic nominee, and will undoubtedly be elected.

In the Second District, the "Horsehoe," Assemblyman James N. Norton will be returned by the Democrats, or possibly two. The Democrats will regain the First and Sixth districts and possibly the Ninth.

Col. Samuel D. Dickinson, the Speaker of the last House, will be nominated in his little Republican kingdom, the Third District. Alderman Donnelly, backed by the liquor men, who hate the military speaker, will run against him. Dickinson's reelection is conceded, although he may run a little behind his ticket.

There is a warm fight for the nomination in the Fourth. Col. Heppenheim, the present Assemblyman, is the Republican. The Democrats will regain the First and Sixth districts and possibly the Ninth.

There is a warm fight for the nomination in the Fifth. Assemblyman Pearson will be returned by the Democrats, or possibly two. The Democrats will regain the First and Sixth districts and possibly the Ninth.

There is a warm fight for the nomination in the Sixth. Assemblyman Pearson will be returned by the Democrats, or possibly two. The Democrats will regain the First and Sixth districts and possibly the Ninth.
